

Chapter 9: The Bond of Love.

Q. How was the problem of what to do with Bruno finally solved?

Ans:- we find that the narrator felt it is a great problem because Bruno grew too big. Now the narrator felt that Bruno should not keep at home for a long time. This is why the narrator and his friends suggested Mrs. Anderson to send Bruno to the Zoo. They compelled her about his dangerousness. Lastly she agreed reluctantly. Even the Zoo at Mysore agreed to have Bruno and took him away in a cage.

Q. What did she feel when Bruno was separated?

Ans: we find that Bruno has taken place in her heart. She loved Bruno very much. She considered Bruno as her own son. So it was very difficult to separate him from her arms.
